

Australian Innovative Systems wins in manufacturing category at

Australian Small Business Champion Awards

Australian Innovative Systems, the Brisbane based manufacturer of commercial and residential chlorine generators and water disinfection technology, has been rewarded for its commitment to innovation, excellence and success by taking out the Manufacturing Award at the 17th Australian Small Business Champion Awards (ASBCA).

Australian Innovative Systems (known as AIS/AISystems) Chief Executive Elena Gosse accepted the award in front of 1,000 guests at the Westin Hotel, Sydney in April.

Attracting over 400 finalists, the ASBCAs recognise the contribution that small business plays in shaping Australia's economic development and culture.

Commenting on the Awards, Gosse stated that she was grateful to the award organisers for helping to shine the spotlight on small businesses. Gosse explained "as a manufacturer and small business owner I don't think that we celebrate or champion small businesses enough in Australia.

"Small business makes such a significant contribution to our economy, and in the case of AIS, is also helping to promote Australian designed and manufactured technology to the world."

Gosse credited the award win to her team of 50+ staff members across AISystems' Brisbane based head office and manufacturing facilities.

Elena Gosse was also a finalist in the Business Entrepreneur category at the ASBCA awards.
